K JAYAPPA, Comm. Tax Officer

OFFICE OF THE ADDITIONAL ASSISTANT COMMERCIAL TAX OFFICER, TUMKUR DISTRICT, No 2 SUB-CIRCLE, TIPTUR

Notification dated 8th February 1963

Sub —C S T Act, 1956—Unauthorised transfer of declaration forms "C" notified under Rule 6 (1) of the CST Rules (Mysore) 1957.

No A1 Pr 499/C T Addl/62-63. Sri M. R. Karibasappa & Sons, Hardware Merchants, Tiptur has not furnished the accounts of the 'C' Forms issued to him and that it has further come to my knowledge that he has closed his business and the same has not been intimated by him so far. His present whereabouts are not forthcoming from the records and there is no chance of getting accounts from him. It has also come to my knowledge that one Sri T R. Nanjundiah, Radio Dealer, Doddapet, Tiptur, who was his salesman is in possession of the said 'C' Forms issued to M/s. M R Karibasappa & Sons as per his statement dated 3rd July 1961 in which he has also stated that he will return them whenever called for. From the records available before me, I have every reason to suspect that M/s M R Karibasappa & Sons has transferred the said 'C' Forms directly or through any other person to said Sri T R. Nanjundiah, Radio Dealer, Doddapet, Tiptur, which is not for the lawful purposes of sub-rule (1) of Rule 6 of Central Sales Tax (Mysore) Rules, 1957, as it is gathered from the documents seized by me on 25th January 1963, pertaining to this person. Further I am also convinced that this dealer is trying to evade payment of sales-tax payable by him for his business under M.S.T. Act, 1957 and CST Act, 1956, respectively. So the declaration Forms 'C' of the description noted below have become invalid for the purposes of CST Act and Rules. It is accordingly notified for the information of the public that anyone has used or uses fraudulently the said Forms will render himself liable for penal action under CST Act and Rules. Anyone who has received anyone of the said 'C' Forms should report to the Additional Assistant Commercial Tax Officer, Tumkur District, No, 2 Sub-Circle, Tiptur with particulars of goods sold and their value thereof within 15 days from the date of publication of this notification in the official Gazette. The public are also cautioned against accepting the said 'C' Forms for purposes of Section 8(4) of the C. S. T. Act, 1956. Anyone who finds or in possession of the said declaration Forms 'C' in question either unused or the counterfoils should return to this office within the said period.

- 1 No. of the forms lost, destroyed, stolen or transferred not for the purpose of Rule 6(a) of C. S. T. (Mysore) Rules, 1957—From G 371726 to G 371750 (both inclusive)
- 2 Name and address of the dealer to whom declaration Form 'C' is issued by the Department with date of issue—M/s M R Karibasappa & Sons, Hardware Merchants, Doddapet, Tiptur
- 3 Date of issue—19th May 1959
- 4 Registration Certificate No of the Dealer under C. S. T Act, 1956—T. R. A. C. T No. 60/T R 41.
- 5 Name and address of the dealer to whom 'C' Form is sent.—Not known
- 6 Date of issue of 'C' Form by the dealer—Not known.
- 7 Date of transfer of 'C' Form not for purposes of Rule 6(1) of the CST (Mysore) Rules 1957—Not known
- 8 Whether lost, stolen or destroyed—The dealer might have issued some of the Forms 'C' for inter-state purchases and some he might not have issued, some of them appear to have been misused by Sri. T R. Nanjundiah, Radio Dealer, Doddapet, Tiptur. Full particulars are not available and ascertainable now.
